

There is too much violence, sex and inappropriate behavior and language on television including broadcast and cable/satellite. CSI is one of the worst offenders in this regard. My husband wanted to watch CSI: Las Vegas' season finale last night. It was appalling. I'd like to see some standards reducing this stuff before our entire society is too crude to live peaceably and decently together.